

Afternoon Activities- 'Snowballs'

Please complete one of these activities for your home learning each afternoon and share what you have done with your teachers on Tapestry.

RE	Make a picture of your favourite character in the Nativity. 	Since the Nativity story is all about Jesus being born, talk to somebody at home about when you were a baby. What are babies like? What do they do? How do you look after them? See if you can find some photos of you when you were a baby.
Literacy	Watch 'Snowballs' on YouTube and write a list of things you might need to make a snowman. 	Practise writing all of the letters you know and your name. Can you write your name without any help?	Read a story at home or on 'Epic! Books' about winter and discuss with somebody what you like and don't like about it.
Maths	Watch this episode of Number Blocks all about adding one more. Can you add one more? 	Practise writing your number 1-5 in any way you like. See if you can put them in the correct order.	Have a go at this Maths game and see if you can order the number 1-5.

Understanding the World	Make some ice cubes and test different ways of melting them. What works best? 	Keep a weather chart this week. What is the weather like outside? How cold/warm is it?
Expressive Art and Design	Make a model or a picture of a snowman. Think about what features he needs. 	Learn and perform a song all about cold weather. You could do 'Frosty the Snowman', '10 Little Snowflakes' or 'Here we go round the Mulberry Bush', or choose another one.
Communication and Language	Play a listening game 'snowman says', where the leader is a snowman and gives instructions such as "Snowman says, touch your buttons.", "Snowman says, touch your carrot nose."	Have a look at the 'Picture News' for this week (see Tapestry).
Physical Development	Have a go at this yoga session based on a winter story.

and Emotional Development

Look at some winter photos (some provided on Tapestry). Think about how each picture makes you feel and make a face to show that.
