

Egyptian homework

You MUST complete at least one activity from this table each afternoon that states 'Topic Overview' on the timetable - either as a family or independently. This work can be shared with your teacher via your own Google Class account.

Reading, writing and speaking	Write a set of instructions for the mummification process. 	Pretend you work as an embalmer during the time of Ancient Egypt (a person who preserves bodies through mummification), write a diary entry about a day of mummification.	Write and perform your own poem about the mummification process. 	Write a story set in the time of the Ancient Egyptians. Include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● A beginning</li> <li>● A build-up</li> <li>● A problem</li> <li>● A solution</li> <li>● An ending</li> </ul>
Maths and Science	Science: Create a model of a papyrus boat that was used for the main transport during this time. Investigate how much cargo your boat can hold and how water resistant it is. 	Maths: The ancient Egyptians made their pyramids by cutting stone into blocks and layers in a square arrangement, one layer on top of the other. They would need to work out how many blocks to make pyramids of different sizes. Can you work out how many blocks would be needed to make pyramids of 4, 5 and 6 blocks high? Example: a pyramid of 3 blocks high - 14 blocks altogether 	Science: The Egyptians worshipped the sun god, Ra. He was the most important god because he gave light and warmth. What light sources can you identify, apart from the sun? Which is the brightest? The sun produces warmth as well as light. Do you think other light sources also produce warmth? Can you find some examples? Why do you think the Ancient Egyptians couldn't see anything without natural light?
